Dear Sir,

Your favor of the 24 June reached me only about two weeks since having missed me in some of my travels, I trust. You may be included in placing my collection of Canadian Communion Tokens. You ask me about Cortean No 380, I have tried to find what mine cost me, but I think it fell to me at a moderate price of less than 5.00. When I bought it was not listed and not very well known. I note Cortean values 362 White Farthing at R 5 - 280 - (1382) R 8 - 360 R 6 - I should think as compared with White Farthing it should be rated higher than R 6 - but as compared with 1382 I should think it is too ~~high~~ ^{high}. My 1382 cost me 20.00 five years ago and I value it at 40.00. I really know very little about its value but it appears to be very scarcely, I only remember of seeing two offered for sale since I have been collecting, I believe it was issued by John Brown who issued B No 896.

Would you mind telling me what you had to pay for yours, and can you give me the address of some reliable broker that I can ship British + Foreign Silver to.
Do you know Zimmerman + Forsyth - or Gutttag Bros.

Yours Truly
